FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Platte County Board of Election Commissions assume up to $6,500 in FY 2016 to purchase wireless hotspots and up to $1,300 per election for data. Allowing Poll Pads to access the most current data is the most reliable way to avoid conflict or misinformation on election day. Loading election data represents a significant investment in staff time and is a task that is done several days before this proposal requires to close registration for qualified service members. At that point, the Poll Pads will be sealed and won't be opened again until election judges set them up on election day. Without network access, newly registered voters will not be included in the list of eligible voters.

Oversight assumes the amount of people who would qualify under this proposal would be minimal, and therefore the local election authorities could absorb these costs with existing resources.

Officials at the St. Louis County Board of Election Commission, the Office of the Secretary of State, the Jackson County Board of Election Commission, and the Lincoln County Clerk's Office each assume no fiscal impact from this proposal to their respective organizations.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business
